

Family Law Financial Disclosure

TOP 5 INCOME DOCUMENTS YOU'LL NEED TO PROVIDE

The basics

1. Complete T1 Personal Income Tax Returns

including income slips (T4s, T4As, T5s, etc.)

for the past three years

2. Notice of Assessment & Reassessment

for the past three years

Employed

3. Two Recent Paystubs (or equivalent statement) showing year to date earnings, including overtime
4. Summary Page of benefits received from employment
5. Completed Tax Form T2200, if commissioned and deducting expenses.

Self Employed

3. Financial Statements (Assets & Debts, Income & Expenses) for every business, corporation or partnership you have an interest in, for the past three years
4. A list of any employees and corporations your business pays not considered "arm's length"
5. Any Shareholder or Partnership Agreements

Not Employed

3. If terminated from employment, your Record of Employment (ROE)
4. Stubs showing amount you are receiving for the following:
Employment Insurance, Social Insurance, WSIB, ODSP, disability payments, Pension, Canada Pension Plan, employment severance
5. A resume setting out your education & work experience

